

Help Fight Serial Killer's Transfer

Serial killer, James Koedatich has requested to be transferred from New Jersey State Prison to a prison in Illinois in order to be closer to his family. In 1982 he murdered Deirdre O'Brien and Amy Hoffman.

The New Jersey Crime Victims' Law Center is strongly opposing this request as are the victims' families, the Morris County Prosecutor's office and many members of the statewide victims' rights community.

- The recent Star Ledger news article may be viewed at http://www.nj.com/news/index.ssf/2011/01/head_of_nj_victims_rights_group.html

- View a copy of the letter written to the Department of Corrections by the New Jersey Crime Victims' Law Center.
- If you wish to object in writing to Koedatich's request for a transfer to an out of state prison, please write to the following:

1. Gary M. Lanigan, Commissioner
State of New Jersey
Department of Corrections
Whittlesey Road
PO Box 863
Trenton, NJ 08625
Attn: Donna Sweeney

Fax: 609-292-9096

2. Governor Chris Christie
PO Box 001
Trenton, NJ 08625
Fax: 609-292-3454

Official site to send an electronic communication to the Office of the Governor:

https://www.state.nj.us/cgi-bin/governor/govmail/govmail_1c_new.pl

Thank you for your Help.